Resolution No. 72-89

RESOLUTION DECLARING A STATE OF EMERGENCY

WHEREAS, there has been very little to no rain fall during the last four months throughout Navajo County; and

WHEREAS, the lack of rainfall has resulted in severe drought conditions in Navajo County; and

WHEREAS, conditions now exist with critical shortages of water and range feed for livestock; and

WHEREAS, the severe drought conditions have resulted in livestock suffering from chronic distress symptoms and the livestock is in generally poor physical condition in many areas of the county; and

WHEREAS, the severe drought conditions pose an extremely high wild fire hazard for the forest and range lands in Navajo County; and

WHEREAS, the Navajo County Board of Supervisors has the authority to declare a local emergency by this resolution;

THEREFORE, BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that an emergency now exists in Navajo County and will remain in effect until further notice of the Navajo County Board of Supervisors.

Adopted this 10th day of July, 1989

Larry A. Layton, Chairman
Navajo County Board of Supervisors
